

Panel Speaker

Corinne Prince-St-Amand

Director General of the Foreign
Credentials Referral Office
Citizenship and Immigration
Canada

Topic of Presentation: "Leveraging
Immigrants' Talent in the Federal Public
Services: The Federal Internship (FIN)
Program"

In December 2008, Corinne joined Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) as the Director General of the Foreign Credentials Referral Office.

Between October 2007 and December 2008, Corinne was the Director General of the Labour Market Integration Directorate at HRSDC. She was responsible for the work of the Foreign Credential Recognition Program, Labour Mobility, the Going to Canada Immigration Portal, and the Skills and Labour Market Information Division (National Occupational Classification system, occupational information and Essential Skills research).

Corinne was named the Director of the Foreign Credential Recognition Program in the Human Resources Partnerships Directorate at HRSDC in January of 2004.

Corinne graduated with a Bachelor of Social Science from the University of Ottawa in 1985 and received her Bachelor of Laws from the University of Calgary in 1991.

Corinne grew up in northern Saskatchewan and now makes her home in Chelsea, Quebec, with her two young children.